- Administrative support.

Make sure that your principal and, if applicable, your immediate supervisor sign(s) the statement at the bottom of this page.

- In preparation for your interview, please be prepared to discuss the following:

Describe a successful teaching practice or strategy you use and explain why you believe it is effective. Describe how this practice or strategy connects to one school or district initiative, Connecticut's Revised Common Core of Teaching, the Newtown Success-Oriented School Model, or District Strategic Plan.

- Acknowledgements

I fully understand the commitment I am making including the following:

- I am willing to devote the time necessary to attend pre-placement and in-service training, including a one-day refresher workshop every three (3) years at the district's expense.
- I am committed to working on a regular basis (30 hours minimally with a new teacher, 10 hours with an experienced teacher) or with any beginning or student teacher that is placed with me.
- I welcome the opportunity to collaborate with other mentors and experienced teachers to support beginning teachers in my building.
- I fully understand that acceptance into the Mentor and Cooperating Teacher Program does not guarantee that a beginning teacher or a student teacher will be placed with me.
