

These parent education classes are book club formatted and will provide practical suggestions to help guide your children toward success, confidence, and kindness.

Location:

Reed
Intermediate School,
Library/Media
Center

Meeting Time:

Thursday

February 9th
6:30-8:00pm

Parenting for Achievement: A series of four discussion based meetings

Moderated by the Project Challenge teachers of the Newtown Public Schools.

Our first session will address the importance of effort, motivation, and mindset on reaching a child's full potential. If you plan to participate, please download the following article from the district website under the Gifted Education link.

When your Child Goes Overboard

by Nancy M. Robinson, PhD

Please bring a hard copy, your thoughts, and questions with you.

Optional book accompaniment:

Make your Worrier into a Warrior:

A Guide to Conquering Your Child's Fears

Parenting for Achievement meetings are open to all parents of Newtown Public School students.

If you have any questions, please email Sherry Earle, PhD at earles@newtown.k12.ct.us